MARGARET LAWRENCE

TWO DAINTY AND ATTRACTIVE DESIGNS FOR EMBROIDERING COLLARS

A season-old blouse can be quickly transformed with the aid of a dainty collar, such as these shown here. A collar plays a very important part in one's ward-robe, as often, by changing the style of collar worn with a blouse or dress, it gives an entirely new appearance to the garment, thus allowing it a new lease of life. As these collars are worn the year round one can not have too many. Pattern 14070 contains a simple design for a collar, cuffs, revers and tabs for a simulated vest or pocket flaps. These may be used together or the collar and cuffs may be used alone, if preferred. This design should be stamped on fine hand kerchief linen, lawn, batiste or organdie and embroidered in solid work and evelets preferred. This design should Particularly suitable is this design for wear with a blouse of crèpe de Chine, fine handkerchief linen, crèpe or some of the fancy lingerie materials. 10 cents. Equally charming is the attractive collar with revers,

No. 14003, and quite differ-ent in the shape of both the collar may be finished with a narrow edging and revers. This collar is straight of Valenciennes or Cluny lace. Very across the back while the other is pointed. It is suitable for wear with a blouse, dress or coat, and should be made of thin sheer material. A touch of color may be introduced into the embroidery of this pattern, or it may be designs, and the solid work should be firmly padded. 15 cents.
